

ServoMaster: Metadata: controller/bandwidth

1. Definition

`controller/bandwidth` property determines how many positioning commands per second the controller is able to execute.

This property can be used to implement the software transition controllers with greater precision.